Discussion made during conference was social media has affected our society for better and for worse. Looking at these initiatives, it is clear that social media will build a distinction in people's lives. However, achieving this development or modification is not straightforward. There are matters that require to be addressed before we can even consider using social media as a tool for development for the mass. So far, we have seen each what is operating and what is not. Keeping in mind the negative aspects, there is a desire that we tend to specialize in however best these challenges might be handled.

Brief Report	A One National webinar on "Pedagogical changes during and after pandemic covid19 and following points were discussed- Education moved Online :- Educational institutions worldwide promptly responded to the pandemic by going online. In record time, students moved from physical spaces that provided them with much-needed social interactions, to being seated behind a screen for hours on end. In Lebanon, the shift to online platforms happened at a slower pace, and was mainly driven by the academic institutions that already had digital learning platforms in place, and the means to operate them. How effective is online learning? • The effectiveness of online learning is still the subject of debate. Experts have been studying the retention of information by students and how remote learning has impacted the development and social skills of children. They conclude that online learning's effectiveness is dependent on the following three conditions: • Students having consistent access to the internet and computers

Date	07/10/2020
Beneficiaries	Faculty Members and Students
Venue	Rama Mahavidyalaya
Brief Report	Two days workshop on "New Education Policy 2020" is organized by the college and discussion is made on following points- The implementation of previous policies on education has focused largely on issues of access and equity. The unfinished agenda of the National Policy on Education 1986, modified in 1992 (NPE 1986/92), is appropriately dealt with in this Policy. A majo development since the last Policy of 1986/92 has been the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act 2009 which laid down legal underpinnings for achieving universal elementary education. This National Education Policy envisions an education system rooted in Indian ethos that contributes directly to transforming India, that is Bharat, sustainably into an equitable and vibrant knowledge society, by providing high-quality education to all, and thereby making India a global knowledge superpower. The Policy envisages that the curriculum and pedagogy of our institutions must develop among the students a deep sense of respect towards the Fundamental Duties and Constitutional values, bonding with one's country, and a conscious awareness of one's roles and responsibilities in a changing world.
